Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 32 - 44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With respect to claim 32, this claim is claiming 'vasodilator delivery systems...' apparently referring to a manufacturing lot for example. It then becomes unclear whether applicant is claiming each such system to be involving plural vasodilator drugs and plural disease applicability or that, loosely, there is a batch of vasodilator kits, each having a single vasodilator and single-disease applicability.

Dependent claims 33 - 37 by contrast appear to be directed to a single such system. With respect to claim 38, the preamble is directed to a system for diagnosis and treatment of a disease caused at least in part by insufficient cerebral perfusion (which might then embrace clinical entities not involving vasospasm such as occlusive or bleeding cerebrovascular strokes) whereas the claimed structure thereafter is directed to vasospastic diagnosis and treatment.

Dependent claims variously inherit these defects.
